The soundtrack and score were composed by A. R. Rahman, who also wrote the lyrics for it. The movie was remade in Telugu as "Prema Katha Chitram". The story begins with a sequence where Madhumitha (Trisha Krishnan), an orphan girl, is sent to an orphanage by her mother who is unable to care for her due to her financial problems. One night, she tries to escape from the orphanage but is caught by the caretaker (Karthik). He takes her to his house and introduces her as his daughter to his wife (Reetha) and two children. Madhumitha is terrified of their family but forced to live with them. She tries to escape all the time but is caught by Karthik every time. One day, Karthik's father's friend (Bobby Simha) comes to his house and requests him to take care of his daughter Meera (Santhanam).
